

PERSONS AND THINGS.

News Notes Compiled from the "Times" Exchanges.

The "Angels" is at last on exhibition in New York. There are many others of Miller's paintings shown, some pronounced by critics superior to the $15,000 canvas; but the rush to see the little 21x30" "Angels" illustrates the efficacy of advertising.

CATTLE are shipped to Europe from this country at the rate of 10,000 head a week, and cruel abuses are reported through the crowding and smothering of the dumb creatures. In time of storm the hatches are battered down and the air is deadly.

The San Diego (Cal.) Union remarks that a "trap sutured at the foot of each orange tree in San Diego would be a benefit to the tree and the world at large." There are at San Diego several clubs and a magazine devoted to the cause of no animal upon the plan of "looking backward." It is all, in all, a progressive city.

The usual combination of a servant girl, a smouldering coal fire and an oil can, resulted in a terrible tragedy at Manchester, Maryland, the other day. It is strange that people will, in despite of constant suicide in the city, after so many thousand warnings in all parts of the country.

At Glasgow on Friday afternoon of last week, during a furious gale, the wall of a carpet factory was blown down, smashing the roofs of several adjacent working sheds, in which about 100 women and girls were at work. Nearly thirty of the unfortunate operatives were crushed to death, while many others were seriously injured.

A LEONARD, Pennsylvania, special states that while Frank H. Yetter, of that city, was on his way home at a late hour Sunday night, he was attacked by a gang of roughs wearing handkerchiefs over their faces to serve as blindfolds, and a black mask. In the struggle, which Yetter was shot in the left arm. It appears Yetter had been warned by letter to stop paying attention to a certain young lady, but he disregarded the warning. No arrests have been made.

The mania for braiding dresses, and for that matter, for braiding nearly every article of wear, seems to be greater than ever. It appears strange that no pretty, simple style can be adopted without being copied by every other braidress. In this month's issue, Braiding, like fine beading, looks well if used sparingly, but an entire gown running over with ornamental vines, arabesques, leaves, berries, bows, birds, and blossoms, put on indiscriminately, is a sight to behold.

WILMOT & RICHMOND, all immigrants from Scotland, collectors of the United States, report collections for the city of Richmond to-day as follows: Tax paid on cigars and cigarettes, $1,693,50; tax paid on tobacco, $1,079,84. Total collections for day, $2,773,34.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Louisville, Ky., November 16.—Smaller offerings of burleys, larger offerings of darks, mostly low grades of both at irregular lower prices for each, were the leading features this week.

BURLEY.—The offerings consisted mostly of low grade red trash and fillers with a very irregular market throughout the week for such prices yesterday being the lowest, and only for strictly sweet烟头s were prices as high as 10c per pound.

DAKES.—The offerings were mostly of lower grades the demand was good, with a small assortment throughout the week. Ten bushels of city factory-dried red to color good baled sweet good medium to selected fillers sold at 10c to 25c per pound, although all were nicely handled, and a class of fillers quite scarce now.

COLOR.—To bright cutting leaf and leaf in good demand but scarce.

RED.—Colorful dull. Reflections of low grades row, 25c.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 19.—Gentleman telegraph to Thomas Branch & Co. as follows: Wheat—at the opening a large number of commission houses had orders to close out December. This broke market prices at 75c, to 85c, and 90c. The market has been steady. There has been considerable local buying of December, and the close is only 5c below the opening. The news has been rather bullish, although outside markets have been lower. Cables steady, corn market strong, and 3,000 bushels expected daily. Prices although all were nicely handled, and a class of fillers quite scarce now.

COKE.—To bright cutting leaf and leaf in good demand but scarce.

ROW.—Colorful dull. Reflections of low grades row, 25c.

OF THE 1889 CROP 75 bushheads were offered, continuing to show lessness, some fine to good color, but all very light in texture, and some too soft. All offered met with ready sale.
